

With all that going on in the world the FCC wants to block me from receiving weather and traffic from my XM radio. Let's get a reality check here . I'm almost 50 years old. I damn sure can decide what I want and when. This is way too much government in my life and it needs to stop.

Please leave my XM radio alone.